Connie Niemann Heyer Biographical Sketch

Connie Niemann Heyer is a native of Austin and went to The University of Texas where she earned four degrees. She holds two undergraduate degrees from UT-Austin. While attending UT she was inducted into several academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa. She also has an M.B.A. from the Graduate School of Business at UT-Austin. She also holds a law degree from The University of Texas School of Law in Austin. While attending law school, she was the administrative editor of the Texas International Law Journal.

She is a partner in the law firm of Niemann & Heyer LLP in Austin. She is legal counsel and lobbyist for the Texas Self Storage Association, and is a lobbyist for the Texas Community Associations Institute (a nation-wide non-profit trade organization representing the interests of property owners associations and their members). Her practice focuses primarily on representation of trade associations and property owners associations, and the firm has specialized in these areas for over 20 years. She is a frequent contributor to the national publication "Mini Storage Messenger" and the primary author of the TSSA Goldbook and all TSSA forms.

Connie also served as associate legal counsel to the Texas Apartment Association and Texas Building Owners and Managers Association for 10 years before retiring from that area of her practice.
